

American Women's Group of Languedoc-Roussillon
An Anglophone network having fun and integrating into the French community

We read, barbecue, and love to learn about Languedoc-Roussillon
We also build bridges with the local community

To find out more and download a website application visit:

<http://www.AWGLR.org>

AWG is a member of FAWCO, the Federation of American Women's Clubs Overseas,
with United Nations Non-governmental Organization (NGO) status

American Women's Group of Languedoc-Roussillon
An Anglophone network having fun and integrating into the French community

We hike, go to museums, and dress up on Halloween

We also support educational and health projects in other countries

To find out more and download a website application visit:

<http://www.AWGLR.org>

AWG is a member of FAWCO, the Federation of American Women's Clubs Overseas,
with United Nations Non-governmental Organization (NGO) status

American Women's Group of Languedoc-Roussillon
An Anglophone network having fun and integrating into the French community

We make friends, garden and love gourmet food

We also raise funds to support parents with hospitalized children

To find out more and download a website application visit:

<http://www.AWGLR.org>

AWG is a member of FAWCO, the Federation of American Women's Clubs Overseas,
with United Nations Non-governmental Organization (NGO) status

American Women's Group of Languedoc-Roussillon
An Anglophone network having fun and integrating into the French community

We vote, cook chili, and honor outstanding Americans

We also support tree planting to help save our environment

To find out more and download a website application visit:

<http://www.AWGLR.org>

AWG is a member of FAWCO, the Federation of American Women's Clubs Overseas,
with United Nations Non-governmental Organization (NGO) status